COMPANY PROFILE

OUR STORY

An innovative entrepreneur, and after being in the technology and telecommunication business for almost 20 years, Salah Hirmasoud- The founder of 050telecom - realized the reputation and high demand of customers for after sale services. He started market research to find out more about customer need, and services availability in the UAE. He realized that the lack of many repair services in the market, where people were looking for after repair services beside mobile devices, and the high demand to get these services in one location, and near their communities.

At this point, Salah started to think in depth, looking into the future, and do what others have not done yet. He explored more about the best practices in personal goods repair market locally and globally, local competition, and deep-dived into the most important services to be provided such as leather goods, watches, key cutting, jewelry polishing, alterations and tailoring, along with repairing mobile devices repair and related products.

After few months of understanding challenges, resources, technologies, potential customers, competitors, customers, artisans, and products, Salah got his attractive skills in discovering, associating, questioning, observing, experimenting, and networking to move forward with his new idea in establish the second generation of 050telecom "050 The Crafters".

ABOUT US

After 20 years of experience in telecommunication products, repair, and maintenance services, 050 The Crafters is launched in 2023 to share its newly added artistic luxury services with our valued customers.

050 The Crafters is a unique concept that includes variety of products and services for the community, to allow people to repair their loved items and get different repair, maintenance, and improvement for these items and purchase their needed products in one place. As a one stop products and services center that offers a wide variety of personal goods repair and restoration for your telecom devices, bags, shoes, leather items. Our one stop services also include watches repair and polishing, jewelry maintenance, repair and polishing, cloths alterations and tailoring, mobile phones and laptops repair, TV repair and TV channels connections along with Etsaka elite packages official Etsaka national partner.

Our locations in key malls and community malls will be supported by our main service center located in our own 050telecom Head Office building strategically located in the new heart of Dubai at Alkhor Industrial Area 1. Our Head quarter service center will operate out of a custom-built, state-of-the-art repair workshop in our headquarters, supported with high-skilled team of artisans, craftsmen, and technicians in different fields, and offering a variety of techniques, tools, and machines.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

Mission:

To consistently improve our customer service, we closely listen to our customers to help them where we can focus on innovation and team development.

Vision:

To establish a world class repair centers whose service the entire UAE in the coming three years.
